

Council failed to keep proper records for decision making

Mid Ulster District Council took the unauthorised decision to cut down a tree in a historic graveyard site without Scheduled Monument Consent and, despite expectation that no further tree cutting would take place. Following our investigation, the Council accepted failings in keeping accounts of meetings with stakeholders, recording actions, and addressing all issues of a complaint.