

Housing Executive compensates contractor for losses

We helped a contractor who works for the Northern Ireland Housing Executive (NIHE) receive compensation after a change in criteria meant he was refused payment for works he had carried out. Our assessment found NIHE had failed to inform contractors and detail the new requirements within the applicant packs.